About the Package

Anini is the headquarters of the Dibang Valley district where the clouds come down to kiss the land. With much of its beauty peeking from behind the misty air, this unexplored town is the place to visit for pristine calmness. The Idu Mishmi tribal people constitute a majority here. Most of Anini is located on a miniature plateau between two tributaries of the Dibang river, the Dri river and Mathun river. Anini is marked by pleasant weather and immense natural beauty, making it a tourist's paradise, appearing from the clouds. Its silence, beauty and magic is almost untouched and can relax you to the very core. Dotted with small grassy islands, juxtaposed against the backdrop of pine-clad hillocks, this clear-blue reservoir is a popular stop, drawing visitors to its shores for tranquil picnics and a variety of water sports. At every turn during your trip, you will be tempted to click some beautiful photographs...
